

WHAT CENTERS YOU?

FIND YOUR BALANCE.

My life is filled with activity. I'm constantly on the move. But there's a thrill I get from figuring out how to fit it all in each day. I've pledged to make my workout just as important as everything else. It's a pledge to myself. A commitment to me. And now New Balance and Sports Authority have an exclusive collection of women's activewear that makes it easier to slip into some "me time." It doesn't take much to make your own pledge either. A daily run, a yoga class after work or an evening walk - it's easier than ever. Because now we've got the clothes that help you make excellent happen.

Come take the pledge at sportsauthority.com/takethepledge and find your balance.
